Vladimir leaned too close to the candle. That's the last thing he knew before his pajamas became an inferno. The burns that dominated his neck and chest were able to be treated right here, by pediatric burn specialists at Lions Burn Care Center, under the watchful eyes of his family. Only UMC can provide the highest level of care in Nevada, which makes UMC one of Nevada's most vital resources.